PLANT gflx. (Professional Landscape and Nursery Trades of Genesee Finger Lakes) and Cooperative Extension of Monroe County are pleased to invite you to our Annual Education Day Conference and Trade Show Tuesday February 12, 2019.

This year's program feature three great keynotes: John Ball, Noelle @ Petitti & Jody Shilan. New this year is an afternoon safety & maintenance track.

The event contains a full day of ornamental horticulture and related seminars for Certified Nursery and Landscape Professionals, landscape architects, interlocking concrete paver installers and commercial pesticide applicators with continuing education and recertification credits available. Nearly 40 vendors will exhibit.

This trade show and conference kicks off another 'green season' in the Rochester area. It is your opportunity for professional development, earning recertification credits, and strengthening your network contacts. We believe you will find this conference a very valuable investment of your time!
